

FACULTY POSITIONS

Educational Psychology

- Department: Curriculum and Foundations
- Position: Assistant Professor—Tenure Track
- Duties: Teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in educational psychology and human development; conducting and publishing results of research; providing service to the university and broader community; advising students; teaching on-line or off campus; and possibly teaching other courses in the department.
- Qualifications: Minimum: Earned doctorate by August 25, 2008 in educational psychology, human development or related field.
Preferred: Two years of K-12 teaching experience or equivalent; university teaching experience; experience in urban or multicultural settings; evidence of scholarly activity or potential; experience with the use of technology and/or distance learning; grant writing; and the potential to teach courses in one other area such as gifted and talented, social foundations or curriculum and instruction.
- Applications: To apply, please send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, names and contact information of three references and a copy of graduate transcripts to Dr. Brian E. Harper, Chair, Educational Psychology Search Committee, Department of Curriculum and Foundations, RT 1436, Cleveland State University, 2121 Euclid Ave, RT 1442, Cleveland, Ohio 44115-2214; Phone (216) 875-9770, b.harper1@csuohio.edu The search committee will review applications beginning November 27, 2007. Position is open until filled.
- Salary: Commensurate with qualifications. Nine-month, tenure track positions include a competitive benefits package and potential summer appointments.

Cleveland State University is an EOE/AA employer. Women, minorities and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.