

FACULTY POSITIONS

Educational Research

- Department: Curriculum and Foundations
- Position: Assistant Professor—Tenure Track
- Duties: Teaching educational research courses ranging from introductory at the masters level to advanced at the doctoral level; provide leadership on students' dissertation committees; conduct and publish results of research; advise students; provide service to the University and broader community; teaching on-line and off-campus courses; and possibly teach additional courses in the department.
- Qualifications: Minimum: Earned doctorate by August 25, 2008 in educational research or related field.
Preferred: Scholarly productivity; successful university teaching experience; experience working with K-12 settings; experience in urban and multicultural settings, capabilities in application of technology; expertise in advanced multivariate statistics; expertise in qualitative methodologies; proficiency in grant development; and potential to teach in one or more of the following areas: foundations, educational psychology, curriculum, instruction, assessment, and gifted education.
- Applications: To apply, please send a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, names and contact information of three references, and a copy of all graduate transcripts to Dr. Fran Peterman, Chair, Educational Research Search Committee, Department of Curriculum and Foundations, Cleveland State University, 2121 Euclid Ave., RT 1444, Cleveland, Ohio 44115; Phone: 216.523.7128, f.peterman@csuohio.edu. The search committee will review applications beginning November 27, 2007. Position is open until filled.
- Salary: Commensurate with qualifications. Nine-month, tenure-track positions include a competitive benefits package and potential summer appointments.

Cleveland State University is an EOE/AA employer. Women, minorities and persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply.