Department of Curriculum and Instruction
College of Education and Human Services
Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Assistant Professor position in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction in the area of Mathematics Education to begin August 16, 2008. Requirements: The rank of Assistant Professor requires a Ph.D or Ed.D. with a specialty in mathematics education and potential for scholarly research that leads to publication in refereed national journals. Applicants who have completed all but the dissertation and who expect to complete all requirements for the doctorate prior to August 16, 2008, will be considered. If official evidence of the appointee's completion of the earned doctorate is not received by August 16, 2008, the position offered will be a nine-month, term appointment at the rank of Instructor and at a lower salary. Persons applying for this position should demonstrate: a broad interdisciplinary background with a specialty in mathematics education; a potential of communicating with the profession through publication in refereed scholarly/professional journals in mathematics education; participation in and contribution to professional/scholarly organizations of mathematics education at state and national levels; a philosophy and understanding of curriculum development and instruction in mathematics education; and oral proficiency in the English language as required by Illinois state law. Teaching experience at the elementary/middle school level and a record of extramural funding are preferred. Screening of applications will begin November 27, 2007, and will continue until the position is filled. Complete applications must include a letter of application that indicates the position of interest and describes the applicant's teaching, research and curricular interests. An application should also include a current curriculum vitae, official transcripts, and a minimum of three current letters of recommendation addressed to: Dr. Lynn C. Smith, Chair, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, Mail Code 4610, Southern Illinois University Carbondale, 625 Wham Drive, Carbondale, IL 62901.
