

Job Title: Assistant Professor of Education #5016

Assistant/Associate Professor of Education, Shepherd University. Full-time, tenure track position in elementary or secondary education beginning August 15, 2008. Major responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in social foundations, special education, and/or elementary or secondary methods and supervising teacher interns. Other responsibilities include team teaching, teaching graduate courses in a Curriculum and Instruction Master of Arts degree and a Masters of Arts certification degree, participating in program development and change, engaging in scholarly activities, committing to an ongoing cycle of assessment and improvement, and providing service to the university, public schools, and profession. Requirements: Earned doctorate in education or related field, three years of Pre-K-12 classroom teaching experience, and experience teaching university courses in teacher education. Prefer background in social foundations, special education, math or science education, or curriculum and instruction, evidence of scholarly activity. Apply at <https://jobs.shepherd.edu>. EOE.